THE LION KING

Look at the stars.

Whenever you feel alone,

the Father

will always be up there to guide you.

And so will I

KIARA

It's Rafiki.

Rafiki! Rafiki!

[laughs]

RAFIKI

Little one,

there's no reason to cry.

KIARA

My parents

they’re gone

RAFIKI

Hey.

Look out there, mdogo.

You see those baobab trees blowing in the wind?

The roots of those trees are very strong

like the Spirit

whom your parents have served

all of their lives

now

they have gone to the ceremonial birthing

grounds.

Sleeping until it is time for the wedding

when The Lion of Judah

Returns

and the Tree of Life

will bring a blessing to you, Kiara,

that you will never forget.

THE FATHER

Mufasa…

My Son.

Come.

YOUNG MUFASA

Father…

What is that light beyond the edge?

THE FATHER

That light is no ordinary place.

Beyond the horizon…

beyond the veil of this world…

lies

Milele

YOUNG MUFASA

Milele?

THE FATHER

It means forever.

A Kingdom

without decay.

Life unending.

Waters that never run dry.

YOUNG MUFASA

Will we ever go there?

THE FATHER

Oh yes,

My Son.

That is the Kingdom prepared for You.

That is where You will reign.

YOUNG MUFASA

When will we see it?

THE FATHER

In its fullness…

when the time shall come

Now

Go

I am with you always
